

PALMYRA RESTAURANT AT THE PEAKS RESORT & SPA DELIVERS FRESH CUISINE WITH EXCEPTIONAL AMBIENCE

Jan. 30, 2011 (Telluride, CO) – The Palmyra Restaurant today introduced innovative chef Stuart Redhead and an original new menu. Situated in the Grand Heritage Peaks Resort & Spa, Palmyra Restaurant combines fresh ingredients with superior ambience overlooking the San Juan Mountains of Telluride, Colorado. This iconic restaurant opened to rave reviews last season, and is renowned for exceptional cuisine and exquisite surroundings.

“Palmyra Restaurant in Telluride takes a contemporary approach to American cooking,” said Redhead. “We focus on clean, simple, flavors and seasonal, artisanal ingredients. Our new exciting menu offers lunch and dinner options, perfect for both guests of the resort and the vacationing family.”

Stuart Redhead creates menu items to appeal to lovers of all types of food. Every dish bursts with flavor, as locally grown and organic ingredients are garnered from special venues. The Lunch Menu offers family friendly options with savory soups and stellar sandwiches. Mainstays of the dinner menu include Beef Tenderloin and Braised Beef Short Ribs, complemented by more casual options including the famous Lobster Mac & Cheese. The extensive wine list is sure to please the most discerning wine lover.

“Named for the iconic peak that rises above our town, Palmyra restaurant is just as unique in taste and experience,” said Mike Hess, sales and marketing director. “This exceptional menu, unparalleled location and ambience establish Palmyra as must-dine restaurant for locals and guests alike.”

Lunch and Dinner offered daily at Palmyra, call 970-728-6800 for reservations.
